EAST BARRE

Clinton R. Pittsley Met With a Serious Accident in Barre City.

Clinton R. Pittsley met with a serious accident last Sunday afternoon while driving to Barre, with his daughter, Dora, who had been spending Saturday and Sunday with friends here. In passing an electric car just as the lights were turned on, the horse took fright and ran, striking a telephone pole and upsetting the carriage, then clearing from the wagon. Mr. Pittsley had a serious shaking up, and was somewhat bruised. The carriage was badly damaged. Miss Pittsley's back was bruised but both are able to be up.

He expressed himself as much pleased with the hotel and the town, and if the snow is of sufficient depth for snowshoeing during the holidays, a large party of Boston people will be in town.

The Choral Art Club.

The two Burlington papers say of the Choral Art club, which comes to Barre soon, as follows:

Burlington Free Press, Nov. 15th, 1906: The Male Choral Art club of Boston gave a concert in the university of Vermont gymnasium last evening, which has never been surpassed in this city.

Most certainly, no such singing by a male chorus as that of last evening has pleased the ear of a local audience. After the last note of "The Lost Chord," the final number, had died away, there was a general feeling of regret, mixed with gratitude to those who made it possible for this fine organization to come to Burlington.

Burlington, Vermont, News: The club's singing of "In Piccadilly" and "Sunset" was of fine artistic quality.

Previous Experience.

A young constable arrived in a certain borough in Scotland, and in the course of duty found it essential to apprehend a very old offender. Arrived at the police station he ushered him in to the cells with the comment, "Mind the step."

"Gaw awt, man," said the prisoner, with contempt. "I lent the step afore ye was born."—Tit-Bits.

ATTENTION!

All plumbing, tin work and stone shed stoves attended to promptly.

UNION CLOTHING COMPANY.

It Pays to Buy a Good Overcoat

One good Overcoat will give you good service for about three years and if it is one of our "Rosman Union Made Overcoats" it will still have shape and style when you are through with it. It is extravagance to buy cheap shoddy woollens. They don't last. We don't mean that you should pay a big price, but you should pay enough to get a dependable garment. Let us suggest a "Rosman" Overcoat at $10.00 to $22.00. If you want a still better one we have it for you. We will guarantee the cloth, the fit and the workmanship. If you are in doubt, we are going to recommend one of our $15.00 garments, for we know that it will give you $20.00 worth of satisfaction. Suits from $5.00 to $22.00. Give us a call.
